2017 AP Exam Opt-Out Agreement

Student Name: _____

Grade: _____ Phone Number: _____

Students may choose to opt out of AP exams because they are either enrolled in the dual credit option or they do not wish to take the exam. The deadline to opt out of AP exams is Friday, March 17, 2017.

Please read the following excerpt from the MVCS Student Handbook:

Advanced Placement

Advanced Placement (AP) classes provide high school students with college level course work. Each spring, College Board AP examinations are administered on campus. Exams are scored on a 1-5 scale. If a student scores a 3 or better on the test, students may receive college transfer credit based on the discretion of the receiving institution.

Some AP and Honors courses offer students the opportunity to be concurrently enrolled in a college course in order to get dual credit (college and high school credit). Students planning to take an AP test will be charged the appropriate fees. In order to receive weighted GPA credit, a student must either take the AP Exam or be concurrently enrolled in and complete a dual credit course.

I am enrolled in the Dual Credit option, and I WILL NOT be taking the AP exam(s) for the following course(s):

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

I am not enrolled in the Dual Credit option, and I WILL NOT be taking the following AP exam. I understand that by opting out of the exam, I will not receive the AP designation or honors credit on my high school transcript:

1. _____
2. _____
